The pro se plaintiff, Bilal A. Al-Haqq, brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 raising various allegations that his constitutional and statutory rights have been violated in connection with a prison disciplinary hearing. He seeks injunctive relief and monetary damages.

The Magistrate Judge¹ assigned to this action has prepared a thorough Report and Recommendation wherein he suggests that defendants' motion to dismiss should be granted in part. The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and the court incorporates such without a recitation.

The Magistrate Judge issued an order pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) notifying plaintiff of the summary dismissal procedure and possible consequences if he failed to adequately respond to the motion to dismiss. The plaintiff responded to the motion after being granted an extension of time.

The plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation which was docketed on September 3, 2014. However, the plaintiff has not filed objections and the time in which to do so has expired. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

The defendants have moved to dismiss this case pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). Defendants contend that the claims against them in their official capacities are not authorized; that the plaintiff has failed to exhaust his administrative remedies; that the plaintiff has failed to state a claim for which relief may be granted; and that the request for injunctive relief is not properly asserted.

The Magistrate Judge opines that the motion to dismiss should be granted in part and denied in part. First, the Magistrate Judge suggests that some grievances were exhausted under the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA) so that the claims may not be dismissed on that basis.

Next, the Magistrate Judge opines that under the Eleventh Amendment, the plaintiff may not maintain an action in federal court against the defendants in their official capacities. As such, the claims against the defendants in their official capacities should be dismissed.

The Magistrate Judge next suggests that only the claims against defendant Corporal Marvin Bryant rise to the level of an actionable tort, thus the remaining defendants should be dismissed.

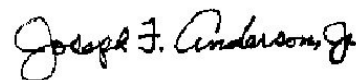

Finally, the Magistrate Judge opines that the plaintiff's request for injunctive relief is now moot as he has been transferred to another correctional institution.

After a careful review of the record, the applicable law, and the Report and Recommendation, the court find the Magistrate Judge's Report proper and adopts and incorporates it herein by reference.

Accordingly, the defendants' motion to dismiss (ECF No. 20) is granted in part. All defendants in this action, with the exception of defendant Corporal Marvin Bryant, are dismissed. The Clerk is directed to refer this matter back to the Magistrate Judge so that the action may continue as to defendant Bryant in his individual capacity only.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
